Justin,

Everything is going according to plan. All the pieces are falling in to place. Nothing can stop us now. The obstacles in our path will fall like dominoes. Soon the world will be ours. Once we kidnap [redacted], we can complete the [redacted] and unleash it upon the world.

Oh, and don't forget: we changed our secret access code from [redacted] to a new super secret access code, [redacted]

Sincerely yours,

Lilian
